

EURINR

EURINR after making recent low of 78.79, moved to high of 79.31 levels. There are multiple resistance around these levels. Falling trend line as well as 50 DMA are placed between 79.35 to 79.50 levels. In last two sessions pair has formed bearish candle at these levels. This indicates selling pressure or bears are having upper hand. Intraday trader can initiate short position keeping stop loss to 79.10.

USDINR

USDINR after testing recent low of 70.80 is trying to consolidate around these levels. Price from last few sessions is moving up and retracing previous fall. Pair broke four day's range last week and steadily moving up. In yesterday's session some bounce back was seen from 71.08 to 71.21 levels. We expect some more pull back to 71.30 levels in intraday.

Crude Oil

Crude after making high of 4670 has move below rising trend line which was acting as a support from last two months. Price which made low of 4059, moved up and re-tested this trend line and we are observing a candle with pronounced wick. This indicates higher levels are attracting profit booking. We expect down trend to resume soon and further lows to get tested.

RMSeed

RMSeed had a good run up in last four months where price soar more than 22%. In this bullish move price was holding in rising channel pattern. But it found strong resistance at 4750 levels and we are observing price changing its course from this higher levels. Currently price has fallen by almost 10% from its recent peak. We expect this fall to continue and lower levels of 4230 to get tested.
